Ranee Gilbert, ASSOCIATE ASID
LUXURY DESIGN AND DECOR LLC

The designers at Luxury Design and Decor love to create spaces that are a beautiful reflection of what's important to their clients. Ranee says they love designing spaces that allow them to indulge in all aspects of styles from traditional to Contemporary; with the most important "design" being functionality. Ranee shares that it is sometimes super hard to put beauty ahead of function when it comes to designing for her clients, but, luckily our designers are so talented that they can do beautifully functional spaces! So, you can have both function and beauty!

Alaina Ranee Gilbert, IDDP, Associate ASID

Murfreesboro Interior Designer, Ranee Gilbert, is an expert in her field by creating curated spaces that allow beauty as well as functionality. Ranee and her design team love designing spaces that allow them to indulge in all aspects of style, from traditional to contemporary, all the while adding a bit of drama with a touch of whimsy that their clients love.

Ranee's creative perspective has been groomed for nearly two decades while working under the direction of highly trained and talented designers from different cultures around the world. With this level of experience, she has honed her skills to include a broad range of styles; together with her unmatched attention to detail and her five-star commitment to each project, Ranee has earned a clientele that includes athletes from the NFL (National Football League) as well as the NBA (National Basketball Association) just to name a few. Ranee has earned degrees from Aquinas College in Nashville TN and The New York School of design as well as numerous certifications. Originally from Mississippi, Ranee lives in Murfreesboro TN with her husband Ted and their four-legged fur-babies Rudy and Rosey.
